INSTRUCTIONS

1. Reservations that are filed for corporations, limited liability companies, partnerships, trade names, trade marks, and service marks can be transferred from one owner to another owner by filing the Reservation Transfer.
2. Once the Reservation Transfer is filed, the transferee (new owner) takes possession of the reservation for the remainder of the reservation period.
3. When the reservation period expires, a new reservation may be filed by filing an Application for Reservation along with the requisite $25 filing fee with the secretary of state.
4. Filing a reservation or the transferring of an existing reservation does not formally adopt the name.
